

PERFORMING ARTS | 46TH SEASON

Thursdays & Fridays at 7 PM and Saturdays & Sundays at 2 PM at the McAlpin Fine Arts Center

by Theresa Rebeck

October 23 – 26, 2025 (Comedy)

When stage manager Roxanne shows up to train the new understudy for her Broadway show, she discovers the producers have hired her ex-fiancé, Harry. Tempers fly, egos bruise, and flames are fanned as Roxanne, Harry, and Hollywood B-lister Jake try to get through the understudy rehearsal without losing their cool, their jobs, or their love for the theatre. [Rated PG-13]

December 4 – 7, 2025 (Instrumental Concert)

Celebrate the magic of the holidays in this festive concert featuring the talented student musicians of Indian River State College. Enjoy a variety of chamber ensembles performing both jazz and classical music with a holiday theme. You'll love this heartwarming performance of traditional favorites and fresh interpretations that capture the spirit of the season!

by Stephen Sondheim, Burt Shevelove, and Larry Gelbart

February 26 – March 1, 2026 (Musical)

Ever had one of those days? You fall in love with the girl next door, discover she's a Courtesan promised to a pompous General, and need your clever servant to help you elope before your parents discover what's going on? No? Then you're sure to enjoy one of the funniest musical comedies ever written (and Sondheim's first major success). This non-stop, madcap, Ancient Roman farce truly epitomizes its most iconic and famous opening song: "Comedy Tonight."

March 26 – 29, 2026 (Instrumental Concert)

In this vibrant tribute to Broadway and Hollywood music, the student musicians of Indian River State College will present an engaging evening filled with cinematic flair and theatrical charm. The concert will feature a range of performances, from intimate chamber works to upbeat jazz numbers, showcasing the versatility and expressive power of instrumental music.

by Marivaux (translated by Alex Kanter)

April 23 – 26, 2026 (Comedy)

This delightful battle of the sexes comedy asks who is more likely to be unfaithful in a relationship – men or women. Four complete innocents, raised in total isolation from the outside world, meet and experience the joys and heartaches of first love, bitter betrayal, and fast friendship in this World Premiere of a new translation of Marivaux's original play from 1744.

by Alexander Nathan Kanter

June 18 – 21, 2026 (Musical)

Experience the World Premiere of Kanter's fully-staged, original musical adaptation of Shakespeare's scintillating "problem play" – Measure for Measure. Isabella, a soon-to-be Nun, must save her overly amorous brother from Death Row by sleeping with the lustful interim Duke Angelo. With the help of a colorful cast, Isabella navigates these treacherous waters while trying to preserve her honor in this exciting musical with original songs blending jazz, blues, and rock styles.

EVEN MORE SENSATIONS!

Saturday, December 6th at 1:00 p.m.

McAlpin Fine Arts Center & Hallstrom Planetarium

Join us for the 3rd Annual Indian River State College Performing Arts and Hallstrom Planetarium holiday event beginning at 1 p.m. with a celebratory reception. Then experience the joy of the holidays with Sounds of the Season, a festive instrumental concert showcasing the incredible talents of our students. Cap off your Yuletide afternoon at 4 p.m. in the Hallstrom Planetarium with the sparkling show, Ornaments in the Sky, illuminating the beautiful celestial wonders visible during this special time of year. Holiday reception sponsored by the Indian River State College Alumni Association. [G]

Friday, May 16th | 7:00 p.m.

Saturday, May 17th | 2:00 p.m.

McAlpin Fine Arts Center

Ballet Vero Beach, in partnership with Indian River State College Performing Arts, presents a special event that promises pop, precision, and perpetual motion. Spring Flings has something for everyone! George Balanchine's original version of "Valse Fantaisie" makes its company premiere alongside Adam Schnell's flirty "ABBAbsolutely" (set to the music by the famous Swedish Pop group), and Matthew Lovegood's lush and windswept "Caprice" returns after an absence of several seasons. Prepare to be dazzled!

Indian River Alumni Association VIP start time 12:00 p.m.