MAYHEM & MELODIES

PERFORMING ARTS | 46TH SEASON

Thursdays & Fridays | 7 PM ◆ Saturdays & Sundays | 2 PM ◆ McAlpin Fine Arts Center

by Theresa Rebeck

October 23 – 26, 2025 (Comedy)

When stage manager Roxanne shows up to train the new understudy for her Broadway show, she discovers the producers have hired her ex-fiancé, Harry. Tempers fly, egos bruise, and flames are fanned as Roxanne, Harry, and Hollywood B-lister Jake try to get through the understudy rehearsal without losing their cool, their jobs, or their love for the theatre. [PG-13]

December 4 – 7, 2025 (Instrumental Concert)

Ring in the holidays with a festive co-production from Indian River State College and the Port St. Lucie Community Band. This heartwarming program unites gifted Indian River State College students and alumni with the celebrated convivial spirit of the Port St. Lucie Community Band. Enjoy a sparkling performance of classical season favorites and fresh takes on timeless holiday melodies.

Book by Burt Shevelove and Larry Gelbart

Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

February 26 – March 1, 2026 (Musical)

Ever had one of those days? You fall in love with the girl next door, discover she's a courtesan promised to a pompous general, and need your clever servant to help you elope before your parents discover what's going on? No? Then you're sure to enjoy one of the funniest musical comedies ever written (and Sondheim's first major success). This non-stop, madcap, Ancient Roman farce truly epitomizes its most iconic and famous opening song: "Comedy Tonight." [PG]

March 26 – 29, 2026 (Instrumental Concert)

From the magic of the stage to the thrill of the silver screen, Indian River State College students and alumni play in harmony with the Port St. Lucie Community Band in this star-studded co-production. Experience some of your favorite hits from Broadway and Hollywood in this shining collaboration of college and community talent.

by Pierre Carlet de Marivaux

(adapted by Alexander Kanter)

April 23 – 26, 2026 (Comedy)

This delightful battle of the sexes comedy asks who is more likely to be unfaithful in a relationship – men or women. Four complete innocents, raised in total isolation from the outside world, meet and experience the joys and heartaches of first love, bitter betrayal, and fast friendship in this World Premiere of a new translation of Marivaux's original play from 1744. [PG]

June 18 – 21, 2026 (Cabaret)

An elegant evening of cabaret celebrating the music of Andrew Lloyd Webber. Featuring selections from some of his most celebrated musicals – including Phantom of the Opera, Evita, Cats, Jesus Christ Superstar, Sunset Boulevard, and The Woman in White – this captivating showcase highlights the unforgettable songs that helped shape modern musical theatre.

McAlpin Fine Arts Center

Ballet Vero Beach, in partnership with Indian River State College Performing Arts, presents a special event that promises pop, precision, and perpetual motion. Spring Flings has something for everyone! George Balanchine's original version of "Valse Fantaisie" makes its company premiere alongside Adam Schnell's flirty "ABBAolutely" (set to the music by the famous Swedish Pop group), and Matthew Lovegood's lush and windswept "Caprice" returns after an absence of several seasons. Prepare to be dazzled!
